

Expert committees of CIREC National Committee of Serbia is established by the Executive Committee for each Conference in accordance with current topics and problems in the electricity distribution of Serbia in the region, with consideration of the number and content of the CIREC technical sessions.

The preferential subjects have been established for the IX Conference on electricity distribution in Serbia and you can see them on the below link:

Preferential Subjects